

Notice to the Market

CPFL Energia S.A. ("CPFL Energia") and Companhia Paulista de Força e Luz ("CPFL Paulista") hereby announces to its shareholders and the market that they have entered into a financing agreement with New Development Bank ("NDB") for the distribution company, in the amount of RMB 1.4 billion (approximately R$ 1.1 billion) and total term of 6 years.

This operation is part of the 2025-2029 Capex Program, and reinforces the relevance of the CPFL group projects for the electrical sector. The finance agreement will be destinated to expanding and modernizing its grid, with the installing of new equipments and the technological update of the existing infrastructure.

In addition, the investment will contribute primarily to the UN's 7th SDG: ensuring universal access to affordable, reliable and modern energy services, which also reinforces the commitments of our 2030 ESG Plan.

NDB is a multilateral development bank established by Brazil, Russia, India, China and South Africa (BRICS) with the purpose of mobilizing resources for infrastructure and sustainable development projects in emerging markets and developing countries.
